

Sharon von Arx

Sharon and Dolph von Arx “retired” to Naples in 1992 after seven years as snowbirds via Greenwich, Connecticut and Winston-Salem, N.C. They have three adult children.

Sharon has been very active in numerous charities and civic organizations. She has chaired fundraising galas for Youth Haven, Shelter for Abused Women and Children and the Humane Society. She has served on local nonprofit boards; including Youth Haven, Community Foundation, Shelter for Abused Women and Children, Artis Friends of Art, and Naples Historical Society. The von Arx were the lead donors for the Wildlife Hospital at the Conservancy, Diabetes Center at NCH and the satellite Greentree adoption center for the Humane Society.

Sharon has received many awards for her endeavors including;

“Women of Style”, by N Magazine, 2003

“AWBA”, Award for Women Making History, 2013

and working with Dolph, they have jointly been recipients of;

“Philanthropists of the Year” by the Community Foundation, 2005

“ Humanitarians of the Year” by Hodges University, 2011

“Champions of Learning” by Education Foundation of Collier County, 2017

“Walter Turken Award” by the Humane Society Naples, 2016 and 2018

“The Eagle Award”. by Conservancy S.W. Florida, 2015