

Naples Historical Society, Inc.
The Central Voice of Naples History
What do we do?*

Educational Programs & Experiences
Thousands of people enjoy Historic Palm Cottage each year.

Preserving These Old Houses
Commitment to maintaining or restoring Historic Palm Cottage™ and 107 Broad Avenue South

Archives & Oral Histories & Old-Timers
Archives and research are the essence of telling the story.

Children's Field Trips
Over 2,000 "pupils" compare and contrast their past, present and future each year.

Naples Historic District
A major public policy issue. It takes a community to preserve one!

Naples History Tours

Christmas at Palm Cottage

Garden Side Chickee Chats
 Lecture series

Events Events Events

Friend-raising events throughout the year

Speaker's Bureau
Talk of the Town!

Beach Homes Books

YES! Ambassadors
 Young professionals getting the word out

Capital maintenance for two historic contributing structures in the Naples Historic District demonstrate a strong commitment to historic preservation.

Naples, A Second Paradise: The History of Naples, Florida

Archival Development

Oral History Films & Vignettes

Council of Longtime Friends

Pupils @ PC Field Trips
 4th & 5th Grade Children

On-Site Presentations
 1st & 2nd Grade Children

Middle School Writing Project

Art in the Garden

Public-Private Collaboration with the City of Naples

National Register of Historic Places, Florida State Historic Preservation Office, National Flood Insurance Program, and The Secretary of the Interior

Legend (21 July 2018)
 The boxes indicate our five (5) preservation initiatives. The ten (10) bolded items under each box represent an educational program that falls under that initiative. Additional outreach includes museum rentals.